Dear Mr. Weisberg;

Since I am recovering from a recent operation, I am taking this opportunity to correspond with you, having to do with your appearance on Jack Sterlings "Contact," and may I say that I enjoyed the show to the utmost and share your views on the "Warren Report" wholeheartedly.

You are to be admired, very much, for taking it upon yourself to investigate this criminal miscarriage of "Americom justice," and I use this latter term loosely.

Although the "Bay of Pigs" was due to, I believe, gross negligence on his part, I still agree that Mr. Kennedy was the best president the United States has had in the recent years. He wasn't constantly using the taxpayers money to fly to Florida to play golf, or sticking his nose in affairs, as with the MacArthur incident, among others.

Well, getting to my point in writing, I have some questions which I did not get a chance to ask you, as I could not get a line to the studio.

To start with, I agree, as you say many people do, that Jack Ruby was injected with the cancer germ to "get rid of him." I imagine that no one will ever prove it, although I hope they do.

Next, my question is about Miss Dorothy Kilgallen. It seems to me an awful funny thing, funny it's not, that after being the only person who ever have an exclusive interview with Jack Ruby, she "accidentally" took an overdose of sleeping pills. It appears to me an over-active coincidence. What are your views on this point?

The name escapes me at the moment, so I will identify this subject by his latest undertaking, "Death of a President." It's odd that Mrs. Kennedy commissioned this man to write the book, okayed it, then turned against him, resulting in an out-of-court settlement on a 3 or 4 page change in the book, with Mrs. Kennedy changing her quotations, possibly because of something she has to hide.

Does it also seem odd to you that this author should acquire a critical case of pneumonia? By the way, what is his present condition? It wouldn't surprise me if he has died.

There has been brought to discussion about a "string of accidents" concerning people connected (directly or indirectly) with the presidents assassination. Are these just rumors or is the public to take these as it hears them?

Well, it could be that when Bobby Baker comes to trial, some of these things may come to light. I am, personally, waiting to see how Lyndon Johnson figures with him, as was mentioned in a recent newscast.

I could write all day and ask a thousand lengthy questions, but your time is valuable.

I only hope you have the time to answer this letter.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully Yours,

Robert L. Mauk, Jr

P.S. How may I obtain copies of Whitewash I + II?
